

Steve Beswick

Director of Education, Microsoft Ltd

Steve has worked at Microsoft for 13 years and prior to this worked at Digital Equipment. He has held various management positions within Microsoft including NHS Business Manager, Finance Sales Manager and Partner Sales Manager. He was promoted to be Director in 2002. In 2004 he ran the Central Government Sales team. In July of this year he took over responsibilities for the Education business and Citizenship programmes. Steve went to Lancaster University where he graduated in 1984 with a degree in Environmental Science (2:1). Outside of work Steve enjoys Cricket, Golf and family life. He is married to Naomi and has 2 children Hattie 15 and Oliver 10