

Half-term Two November - December

Year 9 Personal Development

Lesson	Instructions	Resources	Curriculum
1	Complete the sheet- introduction to morality	Intro to Morality	Religion and Beliefs. What is morality?
2	When Christians want to know how God wants them to live, where is an obvious place for them to look? Many of the teachings and stories have messages for Christians to think about and discuss with others. But it is not always that straightforward? Why do you think this is? (especially in the New Testament?) What is the Golden Rule? What does it mean? This idea of treating others as you want to be treated is highlighted in the story of The Good Samaritan. Listen to this version of the story. Produce a storyboard on A4 paper horizontally. Create 6 boxes for 6 pictures and 1-2 sentences to describe each part of the story.	Good Samaritan	Religion and Beliefs. Christianity
3	Watch the video about Moses and The Ten Commandments. What were the 10 Commandments? Can you draw (or find) a picture to represent each? Sikhism and the Guru Granth Sahib teaches that self-centredness (Haumai) is the main cause of evil. Haumai has five basic elements/ emotions:	Moses and The ten Commandments GCSE Bitesize	Religion and Beliefs. Christianity Sikhism

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pride • Lust • Greed • Ego • Anger • What do each of these words mean? • Are any of them similar to God's teachings from the 10 Commandments? GCSE Bitesize might help you
4	Watch the video about the Five Pillars of Islam. Draw each of the Five Pillars and inside each write what it is called, and what it involves. Imagine you are a Muslim Do 5 tweets on an average day, each one telling your twitter followers how you have fulfilled each pillar of Islam Many of your followers aren't other Muslims, so make sure you explain each one so everyone can understand!	Five Pillars of Islam	Religion and Beliefs. Islam
5	What is the Buddhist idea of karma? What are the 5 precepts of Buddhism? Summarise each of the precepts. How are these similar or different to God's teachings from the 10 Commandments or Sikh's Haumai (five basic elements/ emotions) What do Hindus believe about karma? There are 6 constant mizvots (rules) in Judaism: know there is a God do not believe in other gods know that God is one love God fear God	https://www.bbc.co.uk	Religion and Beliefs. Buddhism Judaism

	do not be misled by personal desires - although it might be hard at times to obey all of God's commands, stay focused How is the idea of mizvots similar to Christianity? How is the idea of mizvots different to Christianity?
--	--	--	--

Please email any queries and completed work to Mrs. Thompson

Suzette.Thompson@monkseaton.org.uk